

To the Worthy Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING been out of England all the Summer, and arriving only Yesterday, I find a Dissolution of the last Parliament has taken Place; and being encouraged by many respectable Electors of this City and Liberty to offer myself a Candidate to represent you in the next Parliament, I take the Liberty to solicit the Favour of your Support, which will confer a considerable and lasting Obligation on

Your faithful and

New Palace-Yard,
Oct. 6, 1774.

Most Obedient Humble Servant,

THOMAS PELHAM CLINTON.
